

FACT SHEET

Contact:
Matt Jackson
Lambert, Edwards & Associates
616-233-0500
mjackson@lambert-edwards.com

COACH DICK COMAR

- Dick Comar hails from Adrian, Michigan and is the son of Jack and Pauline Comar. Dick's mom Pauline became an orphan at the age of one year and was raised by her brother and 4 older sisters. Her parents were immigrants from Poland.
- Dick graduated from Adrian Catholic Central High School and won 14 letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. He graduated with a B.S. in Biology and was captain of the fencing team at the University of Detroit. While receiving his M.S. in Biology from St. Mary's College of Winona, Minnesota and a M.A. in Educational Administration at Michigan State University, Dick taught math and science and coached football, baseball, track, wrestling at the prep levels.
- Dick was a very successful football coach at Wayne State University, Indiana State University, Alma College, Michigan State University, Toronto Argonauts, Eastern Michigan University and was an assistant coach with the Buffalo Bills under Hank Bullough and Marv Levy.
- Dick is a member of the Michigan High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame, the Detroit Catholic Coaches Hall of Fame and is a 35-year member of the American Football Coaches Association. In addition, Dick has been a longtime volunteer for the Special Olympics.
- Dick and his wife Carol have been married 45 years and have 4 children. Their two sons, John and Joe, graduated in Marine and Civil Engineering from the United States Coast Guard Academy. Both also played football at the Academy. Daughter Jenny was vice-president of ticket sales with Detroit Lions and daughter Cathy lives in Cleveland, Ohio. Dick and Carol have 9 grand children.